

UNCW

WATSON SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

In-Residence Programs – Designed to bring the knowledge, skills, and experiences of master educators to the Watson School

Teacher-in-Residence

- Provides the First Years of Teaching Support Program for the region
- Co-authored Will it Phase You?© game
- Organizes and hosts the annual NC Mentor Conference held at UNCW
- Provides professional development sessions for regional educators
- Leads a highly successful National Board Certification support program

Teacher-in-Residence

National Board Support Program Pass Rates

State Pass Rate All Candidates	WSE Pass Rate All Candidates
1453/3425= 42% Pass Rate	65/93= 70% Pass Rate

Session Attendance	Impact
7-9 Sessions	85%
5-6 Sessions	67%
3-4 Sessions	60%

- 100% of all WSE participants, since fall of 2005, report they would recommend our support program to future candidates.

Principal-in-Residence

- Coordinates the Masters of School Administration
- Leads the UNCW Principal Fellows Program
- Serves as MSA program liaison
- Advises graduate students
- Oversees school administrator internship
- Informs program redesign and quality assessments

Principal-in-Residence

- 100% pass rate on the school leadership licensure exam
- 126 graduates since 2003
- 96 have been hired
- Internships supported in our 11 partnership districts
- 25 currently placed in area schools

Superintendent-in-Residence

- Bridges the gap between practice and theory
- Serves as a conduit between WSE and state and national constituents
- Contributes to the academic curriculum, including the Ed.D. program
- Serves as a mentor to future and current administrators
- Provides current research and insights on challenges faced by school systems

